1. The Rangoon Chung Kuo Girls Middle School (0022/0948/1166/0022), 26 Maung Khine Street has been closed until the second semester of the 1954 term or 1955. An elementary school with an enrollment of 300, which is attached to the middle school, will remain in operation.
2. Girls who formerly attended the Chung Kuo School are now enrolled in the Hua Chung<sup>1</sup> and Nan Chung<sup>2</sup> schools.
3. In comparison with the large enrollment for the elementary school, the middle school has only five or six applicants for admission this semester. The reasons for the lower enrollment in the middle school are:
  - a. The calibre of teachers at the Chung Kuo School is inferior to that of the other schools.
  - b. The school facilities are not as adequate as those of the other schools. In particular, they have no athletic field.
  - c. Although the Chinese Communist Embassy directly controls the Chung Kuo School, it gives only a partial allowance and the school has to find methods of making up the deficit.
